President's Note

By the time you are reading this newsletter, the May 7-8 show at Annmarie Garden has happened and the Watercolor Workshop on June 11 has taken place.

Those exhibiting in the show were: Pat Berube, Carol Burkhart, Rex Miller, Mary Ellen Mills, Anne Oman, Candy Pelz, Roland Reed, Mary Ida Rolape, Tammy Vitale, Kelly Wingo, and Gerry Wood and Anna Smith.

The highlight of the reception on Saturday was the awarding of a $500.00 scholarship to Anna Smith, a graduating student of Patuxent High School. This talented young woman hopes to continue her studies at _____.

Following the presentation Maria Fleming, who chaired the scholarship, introduced Anna and her mother to the members present who added their congratulations for her success.

Finally the ballots for the "Most Popular in Show" went to Mary Ida Rolape for her colorful acrylic "Heron & Lilies". A huge piece that was an eye-catcher! (see another winners announced in Kudos column).

All in all it was a fun weekend. Thanks to all who made it so successful.

*Another Successful May Show
May 7-8, 2005*

Again, thanks to all the helpers that made the show a success. Eleven artists and the scholarship winner participated in this show displaying a wonderfully diversified and vivid presentation. Two-dimensional art was represented by a variety of media including watercolors, oils, collage/mixed media, acrylics, canvas hangings, prints, and photography. Also on display were free form glass sculptures, glazed pottery, clay sculptures, ceramics, and recycled furniture representing our 3-dimensional artists. The "Popular Choice" ballot was offered to the people visiting the show to allow each visitor to vote for their favorite art work. This voting was established to encourage the public to slow down and really look at each work. Mary Ida Rolape's acrylic painting "Heron & Lilies" was voted as the most popular painting. The other winners are listed under the KUDOS section. All the exhibitors win in this voting as it encourages the viewers to take a longer look at each work. Congratulations to them. Thanks to all who participated. Perhaps more will enter next year's show!
