President's Note

By the time you read this newsletter, the May 5-6 show at Annmarie Garden has happened and the judge, Carolyn Egeli, has made her awards.

The May show was great fun with the artist participation and the awards. There were 18 exhibitors in the show and I am so pleased with the Guild support: Shirley Arnheim, Rose Beitzell, Dianne Dickey, Phyllis Doughty, Maria Fleming, Rachel Hummel, Joan Humphreys, Bev Jackson, Kennedi Milan, Rex Miller, Anne Oman, Mary Ida Rolape, Mary Sokol, Sue Stevenson, Marietta VanNatta, Tammy Vitale, Gerry Wood, and Joseph Wengloski (Scholarship Winner). The judging and awards brought camaraderie among the artists and created excitement and enthusiasm. I feel that this once a year presentation of awards to artists adds motivation to create exceptional artwork and to enter in the shows. I am sorry not everyone participated as they missed a grand opportunity.

The highlights of the reception on Saturday was the awarding of a $500.00 scholarship to Joseph Wengloski, a graduating student of Patuxent High School and the awards to artists presented by Carolyn Egeli, who judged the show. See the list of winners in following column.

All in all it was a fun weekend. Thanks to all who made it so successful. Let's do it again NEXT MAY!

Now, I look forward to the June Art Workshop, the Plein-air paint-outs, and the July Gazebo/Pavilion Show.

Gerry Wood

CAG EXHIBITOR REGISTRATION
SOLOMONS GAZEBO/BOARDWALK
SHOW
SATURDAY, JULY 21, 2007

Again, thanks to all the helpers that made the show a success. Eighteen artists including the scholarship winner participated in this show displaying a wonderfully diversified and vivid presentation. The judge was challenged to pick winners from such fine competition. Many awards were given in 6 categories as well as Best In Show and Most Popular Choice. The popular choice ballot was offered to the people visiting the show to allow each visitor to vote for their favorite artwork. This voting was established to encourage the public to really look at each work. Dianne Dickey's painting "Pan Fish" was voted as the most popular artwork. The other winners are listed a separate section. All the exhibitors enjoyed talking with each other and seeing who won awards and supporting one another. Congratulations to all winners and participants. Thanks to all. We had a great show and plan to make every May Show an awards show!

Mary Alice Braukman
Acrylic Workshop
Saturday, June 23, 2007

Join artists in the art room at Calvert Pines Senior Center in Prince Frederick for a watercolor workshop with Mary Alice Braukman. The workshop will be held on Saturday, June 23, 2007 from 9:00am – 2:00pm. (A break will be included for lunch at the Center--Lunch is $2.50). Fee: Calvert Artists' Guild members' $35.00 $45.00 non-guild members.

Mary Alice Braukman, (yes, that Mary Alice, you've seen her in all the art magazines) is coming to Calvert Artists' Guild's June workshop! Mary Alice relishes the range and freedom that acrylic paints give her. We can expect to feel that freedom, too. "Acrylic can do everything that watercolor can do and everything that oil can do," she says, "and a lot of other things besides." It will be an all day demo from 9-2 with hands on for all participants. So far, students will only need paper and brushes. Further supply info will be available as the time gets closer.

Just for the fun of it, check out Mary Alice's website and see what she can do at www.braukmanart.com. If you want to get more info, email her at ebraukma@tampabay.rr.com. She loves to chat! The latest article by Braukman is in the summer 2006 issue of Watercolor magazine by American Artist, page 96. Even if you have never painted with acrylics this can be a start of something big! Contact person: Mary Blumberg, phone 410/394-0626, or marybwatercolor@comcast.net Mark your calendars now! (See registration form below!)
