President's Note

I hope everyone is keeping cool! I'm always Cool (as you can tell from this issues photo) but that's another story! Anyway, we had a great time at the recent Award show. Congratulations to all the winners and extra congratulations to Candy Cummings for winning Best in Show and to Ruth Collins for winning People's Choice Award Winner. Both are well deserved. Special thanks go to Joan Bell for judging the show for us this year. You can see a list of all the winners in this newsletter and don't forget to stop by the Calvert Artists' Guild Facebook page to see a photo of "Smooth Jazz" Nia Olabesi, "Get Down with Your Bad Self" Debbie Green and "Twinkle-Toes" Gee Freeman giving us an impromptu jazz number as well as other photos from the show.

We now are preparing and looking forward to our next show this month at Asbury-Solomons. Who knows what kind of craziness and mayhem will go down! For all you artists out there that really hate to pay commissions to anyone, this is a show for you. We are going to have lots of room so sign up and bring lots of art. Read on for more information and an entry form. We hope to see you there!!

July 28, 2012-SATURDAY

CALVERT PINES SR. CENTER, Pr. Frederick

Printmaking Workshop - Saturday July 28, 2012, 9A.M.-2P.M. Diane Nargiz will be the Instructor. Attendees will receive a list of supplies to bring upon sign -up. Hope to see you there! Contact persons; Diane Nargiz, d.nargiz@comcast.net, Lonnie Harkins 410-326-7199, baronvonsmoogle@netscape.net; Gerry Wood, 301-863-9663, gbwood2@verizon.net.

Diane Nargiz came to the art world by way of a Grandmother, who was an oil painter, and a Mother who was a dress designer. She won a summer scholarship at the Art Institute of Chicago before college. She graduated from the University of Illinois, with a Fine Art degree in art education. Later, she taught in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Virginia. In 1965 she went back to obtain a Master's degree in Art Education, focusing on printmaking. In 1990 she accepted a job teaching art overseas and for the next 10 years taught in Egypt, Korea, Kuwait and Ecuador. During that time she presented four workshops at Educational Conferences in Turkey, Sri Lanka, Kuala Lumpur and Dubai, U.A.E. While in Korea, she taught a Humanities course for the University of Maryland at Osan AFB. After returning to the United States in 2001, she became a docent at the Hirshhorn museum, where she conducts tours. She currently teaches an Art Survey course at Bolling AFB for Central Texas College and taught on line for CTC as well. Diane has won many awards throughout the years in watercolor, silk screen printing, mixed media, etc. Diane lives in Dowell, Md. with Shotzi, her rescue dog.

Featured Artist

Deborah Green

Debbie Green is a bead and glass artist currently living in Lusby, Md. She has been beading for over twenty years. While living in Colorado Springs she would visit an old Native American near “Garden of the Gods” Natural Landmark. Deb says “I loved the time we would go see the Indians doing bead work. I was fascinated by all the effort that went into making beaded buckskin dresses and moccasins”. During one visit the old man gave her a suitcase full of old beads. “My Cherokee heritage must have been speaking to me because I have been beading ever since.”

Debbie's interest in other forms of glass art began with a stained glass class several years ago. She has since expanded her interests to include fused glass jewelry and dabbling in lamp work bead making.

Debbie has been a member of CAG for 5 years. She joined the Guild after going to a meeting with Mary Embry. Deb says “The best thing I did for my art was to join the Calvert Artists’ Guild. I get inspired and encouraged by the other artists in the Guild.” Debbie gets additional inspiration and ideas from magazines, books and the Internet. The biggest regret Debbie has about her art career is not starting much earlier.

2012 Calvert Artists’ Student Art Award Winner

Sarah Buckalew, daughter of Charles and Sylvia Buckalew, a junior at Huntington High school, won the Student award for 2012 amid the fiercest competition the Award has had in some time. Sarah triumphed over four other students, all of which were excellent artists in their own right. Sarah's principal medium is acrylics with watercolors being her secondary medium. Sarah's other art accomplishments include winning the Suicide Prevention Poster Contest and receiving Ceramics Student of the Year at Huntington High School. Her favorite activities outside the purview of art include writing, baking, and shopping. Although Sarah would love to become an author she feels a more realistic plan would be to try her hand in the fashion design or graphic design fields.

Sarah received a check for $500 and a one year membership in the Calvert Artists’ Guild as her prize for winning the Student Art Award Competition.

Asbury/Solomons Art Show

June 16-17, 2012

Show Hours: Saturday & Sunday, 10-5

Mark your calendars for Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17, 2012 for the NEW JUNE SHOW at ASBURY/SOLOMONS AUDITORIUM. (This replaces the June Solomons Gazebo Show!) We will set up on Friday, June 15th @ 4:00 p.m. and take down on Sunday June 17 at 5:00 p.m. All CAG artists are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to exhibit and sell their art. This facility offers more space than the Annmarie Garden Gallery. There is NO COMMISSION charged to the artists. We will be able to use multiple screens and many tables. Spacing is grandiose! We hope to have a variety of arts and crafts. Artists in all mediums are encouraged to join in this show. We would like to see fiber work, jewelry, sculpture, glass, batik, weaving, ceramics, as well as paintings. Exhibiting artists are asked to sign up to sit the gallery for a two-hour shift on Saturday or Sunday. Registrations are due by June 11 (There will be NO Show Program). The registration fee is the usual $25.00 for members. Artwork must be delivered at the Asbury/Solomons Auditorium on Friday June 15th, 2012, from 4pm to 6pm, unless other arrangements are made in advance. Note this evening set-up time change to accommodate those that are employed weekdays. There is free parking and free admission. If you have any questions contact Lonnie Harkins; 410-326-7199; baronvonsmoogle@netscape.net or Gerry Wood, 301-863-9663, gbwood2@verizon.net. We hope this will be a very successful show. If this show proves to be a success and we like the facility, we will plan future shows to be held at this venue. Please come out and enter in this June Show to take part in its success!
