Prez Notes

We've had 3 art shows since our last newsletter. The March sales were great because there was an event on the island called "A Taste of the Solomons" so many people stopped in on Saturday. We made $2490.75 at that show.

The May Awards Show was judged by Ed Palaszynski. Sales were a total of $1277.63. Sylvia Hill won "Best in Show" and she is featured artist in our 2020 Roster. Many happy artists won ribbons and prize money.

The July Show brought a total sales of $1943.00. Donna Tizol won the free entry into the next show in October Show, she also sold 3 paintings! Of course, my shout out goes Lonnie Harkins, our Show Coordinator, who does an amazing job making these shows run smoothly.

As we approach the New Year 2020, the Board has to start looking for activities, workshops and demos. I am asking members what kind of events would you attend? Do they know someone who could teach a workshop or demo? Do we want to spend extra money and bring in someone well known? This is your organization, and we want to get people to come to activities you want.

Once again, our thanks goes to Suzanne Sheldon for producing another wonderful job on both the Roster and the CAG Brochure. Many thanks go to Gerry Wood, Julie Allinson, and Kate Dinnel for their editing skills. And last but not least, my thanks goes to Don Barr for printing the rosters. Yes, it takes a village...

Only 5 CAG members took the June workshop on tie dyeing taught by Virginia and Mike Richardson. We had a bunch of fun. Now I have a whole wardrobe of shirts, pillowcases, and scarves.

Finally, please sign up for Deb and Lonnie's Workshop on Acrylic Pouring. There were a lot of people who wanted to take it last time, so now is your chance to sign up. It is November 16th from 10:00am to 3:00pm at the Mount Hope Community Center. We have permission to leave the paintings there overnight, and we will pick them up on Sunday, so they can dry a bit before transporting them home. So be there, or be squared.

So, get out there and do some art!

At calvART Gallery in October

Save the date!

Opening Reception
October 12, 2019
Saturday, 5-8pm

In June our workshop was great fun and full of color!

Virginia and Mike Robinson led the workshop through experimentation in folding and using color. Psychedelic pillow shams and bedspreads proved that tie-dyeing is not just for tee-shirts.

Don't miss the next workshop in November. Lonnie & Deb Harkins will provide instruction for Acrylic Pouring. See page 6 for registration form.
