PREZ NOTES

Hello Fellow CAG Members!

"Many hands make light work."
The August Art Show was highly successful. We made over $4000.00. Sorry I wasn't there, but Lonnie (Show Manager) and Kate Dinnel (Treasurer), plus the CAG members pulled the show together as always. Now we are looking forward to the Awards October Show on the 9th and 10th.

The Plein Air is next on the schedule in Leonardtown, MD. Thank you Nicole Stewart for coordinating this effort. The CAG painters will be in the town square on Friday, Sept. 3. The 8/1/21 registration is now closed, but locally created artwork will be displayed in businesses throughout Leonardtown where people can vote for their favorite pieces. Voting will start on Sept. 1st and will run through the end of the month.

My thanks also go to Diane Preus for her efforts to create our beautiful newsletter. Also, thanks to Nicole Stewart for leading our Workshop Zooms and to all that led or participated.

We need a person to do our publicity for art shows. Deb Daniels, who previously did this job, has left her whole list of people she would contact. Also, we need a person to coordinate CAG workshops. Please feel free to volunteer.

The Board is still working on the calendar for CAG. It's a little disheartening with Delta lurking around us. Pam Callen has offered to do her "Pet Workshop" for us November 20th. We are looking forward to that.

September 11th is our Annual Potluck/Meeting at 1:00 pm, which will be held at my home (outside) since Asbury is closed to outsiders. Unless it rains, then come on Sunday. I live on Leason's Cove, so we have a nice view to enjoy. Bring your other half and liquid libations. Please park on the circle at the end of the road. If you have walking problems, pull up to the house. We live off of Rousby Hall Road. Please email me if you're coming. (fujibarr@comcast.com) 310 The Bitter End, Lusby, MD 20657

That's it folks, Jan Barr
