January 2022

PREZ NOTES

Happy New Year everyone!

I hope everyone received your new 2021/22 Roster. Many thanks go to Suzanne Shelden for her wonderful design work and to Don Barr for the printing of the Roster. If you didn't receive the Roster please let us know.

It's 2022 and that means that your dues are now due ($30.00 for one membership and a family membership is $40.00). If you just joined the last 3 months, we will accept this as payment for 2022.

Please send checks to:

Calvert Artists' Guild

Prince Frederick, MD 20658

Our last meeting in December we had our social time with our usual goodies and then our meeting. We elected the CAG Board. Kate Dinnel was voted as our Treasurer once again. Pam Callen volunteered as the new Secretary, and Jan Barr remains as President. After the meeting we made gnomes. Our thanks go to instructor Deb Erb. I'm not much of a craft person, but it was fun.

Our next workshop is Polymer Clay. Polymer clay can be used to make a variety of crafts like jewelry. Janet Werner will be our instructor at Mount Hope Community Center on January 29 from 10:00 to 3:00.

Keep on creating!

Jan Barr

December 2021 CAG Meeting

Deb Erb, Elaine Strong, Julie Allinson, Tracey Vernon and Jan Barr -- are as busy as Santa's elves crafting their gnomes!

Kate Dinnel and Iris Hall-Willey are all smiles as they admire their holiday gnomes!

The festive results of everyone's crafting efforts. So cute!!!

IN MEMORIAM

PEGGY HOVERMALE

Peggy Hovermale - Past President of CAG
2015-2016

With heavy hearts, we announce the death of Peggy Hovermale (Edgewater, Maryland), who passed away on December 31, 2021 at the age of 86. Peggy will be missed by many CAG members.

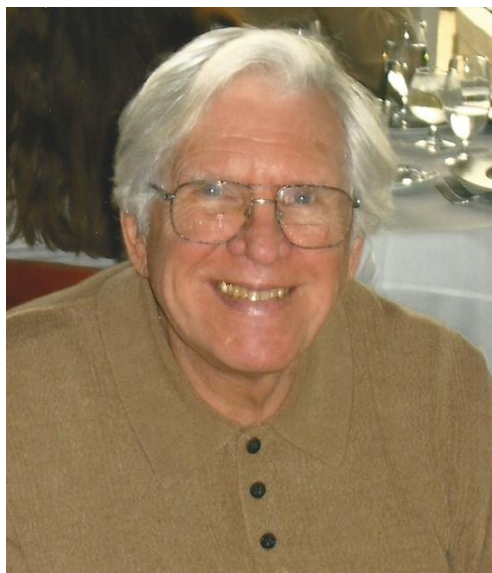

SHARON GAIL WEINER

Sharon Gail Weiner, 71, of Lexington Park, MD passed away on September 25, 2021 at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was best known by CAG Members for her Workshop on Bedazzling Canvas. She joined CAG in 2018.

REX MILLER

It is our sad duty to inform you that Rex Miller passed away on December 23, 2021 at the age of 93. Rex's passion was sketching and painting. After moving to Solomons he enrolled in the Advanced Oil Painting Class at the Calvert County Office on Aging, where he assisted in forming the Color and Light Society. He was a founding member of the CalvART Gallery in Prince Frederick, MD, a member of the North End Gallery in Leonardtown, MD and the Calvert Artists Guild.
